

Storybook Festival Costume Guidelines

For Storybook Festival, students are allowed to come to school dressed as a favorite character from works of classic children's literature, such as our list of Classics to Keep. They do not need to wear their uniforms under their costume, though their costume does need to be appropriate for school.

Come as Aslan, Charlotte, or Thorin Oakenshield. You could be Long John Silver, Robin Hood, or Pippi Longstocking. What about King Arthur, Peter Pan, or Dorothy? If it makes you look like you stepped out of the world of storybooks, you are welcome to wear it!

Please keep in mind the following questions as you prepare your costumes:

- Will my child trip?
- Can he/she still use the restroom easily?
- Will my child be comfortable all day?

Students should arrive to school already fully dressed in their costumes and plan to wear them the entire day. Teachers are not responsible for assisting students with getting into or out of their costumes.
