Happy Memorial Day! No School!

Tuesday, May 26 - Friday May 29

Salvete et Valetate discipuli! We are going to remember some of the characters we met this year in Cambridge Latin Unit 1. We can all agree that Pompeii the year of the eruption of Vesuvius was certainly an exciting and dynamic place. We teachers enjoyed sharing this time with you.

In each Latin sentence, you are given a clue about a character in the book. Choose a name from the word box when you think you've figured it out. No name will be used twice.

A link to an online dictionary is provided above, in case you do not have your books.

Just a reminder, you will not be turning in this packet. It's been a great privilege teaching 6th Grade Latin this year, and getting to know each one of you has been an absolute pleasure.

*Hic annus erat optimus! Habete splendidos ferias!

ferias: vacation, holidays, leisure

Quis sum?

Fill in the blanks with the correct name(s) of some of the characters you have met in the stories in our Cambridge Latin Course, Unit 1 this year. Choose from the names in the box. No name will be used twice.
