

Remote Learning Packet

Please submit scans of written work in Google Classroom at the end of the week.

May 18-22, 2020

Course: 8 Art (Art 3)

Teacher(s): Ms. Clare Frank

Weekly Plan:

Monday, May 18

- Watch the instructional video “Texture and Contrast”
- Write a short paragraph about a strength and an area for growth in your drawing, and conclude by listing two specific aspects you plan to work on as you finish it.
- Drawing “View through a Window”: focusing on craftsmanship and compositional unity.

Tuesday, May 19

- Watch the instructional video “Movement and Balance”
- Last day of drawing “View through a Window”: finishing touches.
- Write a paragraph about your drawing project, in which you describe the subject and mood.

Wednesday, May 20

- Watch the instructional video “Shadow Drawings”
- Make two shadow drawings using plants.

Thursday, May 21

- Choose one of your shadow drawings to develop using patterns and value.

Friday, May 22

- attend office hours
- catch-up or review the week’s work

Statement of Academic Honesty

I affirm that the work completed from the packet is mine and that I completed it independently.

I affirm that, to the best of my knowledge, my child completed this work independently

Monday, May 18

1. Watch the instructional video “Texture and Contrast” for Monday, May 18.
2. Write a short paragraph about a strength and an area for growth in your drawing, and conclude by listing two specific aspects you plan to work on as you finish the drawing today and tomorrow.
3. Continue working on your drawing project “View through a Window”, with an eye to finishing tomorrow. As you work, keep the following in mind:
 - a. The objectives you laid out for yourself in your paragraph.
 - b. The craftsmanship and media manipulation; the surface quality, attention to edges of shapes or areas, and transitions in value or color.
 - c. Compositional unity: that the parts of the drawing seem unified and balanced.

Tuesday, May 19

1. Watch the instructional video “Movement and Balance” for Tuesday, May 19.
2. Continue working on your drawing project “View through a Window, putting the finishing touches on your drawing. In judging how best to use your time, consider the following:
 - a. How does the viewer’s eye move through the piece?
 - i. What are the visual entrances into and exits out from the picture plane?
 - ii. What effects those entrances / exits? Leading lines? Areas of contrast? Narrative components, like figures or stands-in for figures? (ex: a bird, a shovel...)
 - iii. What draws your eye from one part to another within the image?
 - b. How is visual weight balanced in this piece?
 - i. Is gravity used, with visually heavy components lower in the picture plane?
 - ii. Are emphasis points arranged in the picture plane to create a stabilizing or energizing structure?
 - c. Are there some areas of value or color that need more variety or transitions?
 - d. Are there any areas that need to be enhanced, to give greater emphasis, contrast, definition, balance, or resolution?
3. Write a paragraph about your drawing project, in which you describe the subject and mood. What do you want your viewer to take away from your drawing, whether in narrative, mood, or atmosphere?

Wednesday, May 20

1. Watch the instructional video “Shadow Drawings” for Wednesday, May 20.
2. Make two shadow drawings using plants.
 - a. You will need your sketchbook and a pencil. Plan to fill two sketchbook pages. If you don’t have your sketchbook use 2 sheets of plain typing paper. Only draw on one side of the sheet.

- b. Select your scene: In optimal conditions this drawing will be made outside when the sun is out and casting shadows. Choose the time of the day well - it'll be helpful to scout out locations ahead of time. If you cannot draw outside, set up a scenario inside with overhead lighting and a house plant or gathered organic materials (foliage, etc.) giving you plenty of positive and negative shape opportunities.
- c. Position your sketchbook to get an interesting configuration of shadows across the page.*
- d. Using a full, clean sketchbook page, trace the shadows. Use a varied weight of line to add emphasis or enhance shape and movement.
- e. Turn to a fresh page, find a different shadow arrangement, and draw a second shadow drawing.

* You can layer different shadow scenes in if you wish, to enhance the sense of space (see examples).

Thursday, May 21

1. Choose one of your shadow drawings to develop using linework and mark-making patterns and varying levels of optical value.
 - Use your pencil well to obtain beautiful qualities of mark and line.
 - Vary the distances between marks and lines to obtain varied levels of value.
 - Use contrast in value to create the effects of layered space, emphasis, movement, and even, if you wish, curvature.

Friday, May 22: Use Friday to attend office hours or to catch up on the week's work.

Have a great weekend!

“View through a Window”

Project Overview

Imagery:

For this project you are drawing a view of the world outside as seen from a window of your home. You may extend the concept of the window to a door, balcony or porch, but the core concept is a window. You will include some part of the indoors, if only part of the window frame and window sill or side wall.

Composition:

You have completed visual research and selected a view and composition. Continue to make decisions that create a strong composition through effective use of the principles and elements of design.

Draftsmanship and Style:

Develop strong draftsmanship, showing the specific line and shape qualities of your subjects, overlapping of shapes, and strong positive/negative shape relationships. Apply principles from linear perspective, such as converging parallel lines, and eye-level. Employ keen observation, but you do not need to have a photographic realism style. Your work can be slightly stylized or simplified, though this should not be in a comic strip or manga style or aesthetic. (With more freedom animation styles can be a temptation or a default, so I bring your attention to it now.) Instead, your style should be based on observation of form and specific shape relationships in the subjects before you. A wide variety of styles are possible within these bounds. For acceptable approaches to simplified form, please see pages 6-7 from the Week 7 packet.

Picture Plane:

The picture plane for your drawing should take up a full sketchbook page, though if for compositional reasons you need a border along the lower edge you should establish one, making sure it is straight and perpendicular to the side edges. Your drawing should be at least 8x8, but is more likely to be rectangular. Orient your page appropriately - horizontal for the landscape format, vertical for the portrait format.

Media:

You will have the opportunity to use dry media of your choice in this project - so colored pencil or pen is also an option (and there are other possibilities depending on what you have at home). Of course, every media requires a certain investment of time and craft, and the pacing of this project is based on pencil. Other media may take longer. As you consider what you would like to use, look back at the examples by the New York artists.

Concept and Expression:

In an excellent artwork, composition, imagery and style should come together to create an individual expression. You might create a particular type of atmosphere or create metaphor. Perhaps you'll include symbolism. Often meaning and expression develop naturally as part of the decision-making process.
